Dear Folks

Received Hope everything is going great back home & sure love to get mail on the ocean. Mother & Marion's letters this evening. It's good to receive mail on the ocean.

Marion sure has been kept busy with her duties with the Ambulance unit. She ought to get some kind of a metal to wear for all the war work she is doing. Glad to hear so well of that she did not go to see Eddie. That Georgia really is a lovely state. She would not like the ride through all those southern states.

Sure was surprise to hear that Bob is taking Dancing lesson. Suppose he will become another Fred Astaire.

Sorry to hear that Franklin lost to Natick & that little Jimmy McDonald play a while of a game.

Guess I will close for now & hope to get those letters coming. Great to receive them. Thanks for the clippings.

Lots of love
"Dick"
